

- vertical and high installation types can be used for premises with high ceilings;

High installation with top shaft location	High installation with bottom shaft location	Vertical installation with top shaft location	Vertical installation with bottom shaft location

- in case the roof is pitched it will perfectly match with inclined installation type of doors;

Inclined installation	Inclined low installation	Inclined high installation with top shaft location	Inclined high installation with bottom shaft location in case of low crosspiece the low installation type will suit.

Low installation